The Old School House

An Autobiography

AM growing old and feeble, and feel that my time is not long in this town, and therefore, wish to say a few words of farewell to the boys and girls who have made my halls ring in days gone by, and to say a word of greeting to those other boys and girls who will come after I am gone, and who will make friends with my youthful successor, whose walls are rising between me and the summer sun.

To my old friends, I bid farewell. Some of you I have known for many years. I remember well when my first rooms were built in 1882. That was forty years ago, not so long ago as the Pyramids were built but a long time for a building like myself. I was a fine structure those days, when Deshler was mostly woods and swamp, and most of my friends lived in log cabins. However, railroads were built, more people came to take up farms, and cut off the timber. More people moved into Deshler, and my walls would no longer accomodate the hosts of boys and girs, who needs must go to school. So more rooms were added to me, and I attained new dignity, for now the first boy graduated from my High School. That was in 1888, and the boy was E. F. Watkins. I have often wondered where he is, but no one seems to know.

Not much happened for a few years. Boys and girls and teachers came and went, some graduated, while others became impatient to get to work, and left my walls for the farm and factory. I have always been sorry for such as these, for I feel that they have often wished themselves back safe within my friendly, inspiring rooms, when problems with which they could not deal, have arisen.

At last, I, once more, outgrew myself, and the present High School rooms were added in 1902. I now felt quite grown-up, for I at last attained the place where I had need of both a Superintendent and Principal. I suppose there were more youngsters need spankings than when I were younger. As I said in the beginning, I am getting old and feeble, and I feel o'der when I see children and grandchildren of my older friends playing about me. I should have retired several years ago, but like you old fo'ks, when you cannot get assistance, I had to keep going, even though my walls and floors were shaky, and sometimes seemed ready to collapse.

Now, I wish to say a last word to my young friends, who will use my successor. Be kind to your new School House. Use it carefully, and it will repay you. I have often grieved over the thoughtless boys and girls who have defaced my old wall's, and I hope that none in the future will be so unkind to give cause for sorrow to the new building. Adieu.

High School, Deshler, Ohio.

The New School House

Looking Forward

AMONG the changes which have taken place in the past in our American social life, there have been none more significant or far-reaching than that one which had its beginning about the opening of the present century, when log-rollings, husking-bees and similar forms of community activity have been largely abandoned. The American school house once more began to be used as the center of community life.

Our parents and grand-parents all love to tell of the good times they had in the old school houses when they met in the old literary and debating contests, when wits clashed in spelling schools and when they learned to sing "do, re, me," in the old "singing skule." However, with the coming of good roads and better means of travel and communication, this old spirit of neighborliness was partially lost, and the movies and other forms of commercial entertainment took the place of the common interests. Altho some of these forms still maintain their hold on at least a portion of the community, the need for a common meeting place reasserted itself and the school houses again became the gathering place.

Today we find in practically all communities, the old activities operating as never before, but changed and adapted to meet our modern ideals. The old debating society has become a forum where neighbors meet to explain and discuss problems of everyday life, social as well as political and economic, local as well as state and national. The old spelling school maintains its hold, but it, too, has been modified, while the "singing skule" is now a Choral Society, rendering choruses and oratorios like "The Messiah" and with it works the glee clubs, the orchestra, and the band, all instruments in the drawing together of the separate lives of the community and fashioning them into a living unit of fellowship.

Along with these facilities for social and mental recreation the new school will afford means of building up the physical side of ourselves. For the younger set, there will, of course, be basket ball and for the older folks, particularly those whose lives are passed mostly indoors, there will be volley ball, indoor baseball and setting-up exercises, all which help one to keep fit.

The school house is the one place where all meet on an equal footing, regardless of sect or religion. It is the common property and a mighty instrument in the building up of a strong, helpful, uplifting spirit of neighborliness and co-operation. Shall we be wise enough to grasp our opportunity?

The Classes in Verse

FRESHMEN:

The Freshmen, O, the Freshmen!
The noisy, troublesome bunch.
From home they depart,
Forgetting their manners, when they start;
They come to school
And observe not one rule;
Should we call them mere children?
'Twould be too much.

SOPHOMORES:

The Sophomores come strutting in
With feathers stuck in their hat;
They hold their heads high
With fire in each eye
When they are surpassed
By even a Senior, at last;
For (as they think) they're bigger than elephants.

JUNIORS:

The Juniors—let us think a while,
Are past the swell head stage,
They are gaining modest ways,
For through their knowledge they find it pays.
They seem to be striving
Each day for a higher light,
For they see the Senior's might.

SENIORS:

The Seniors are important
And envied by all classes;
They are wise, learned, skilled;
Clear to the top they are filled.
Their books they have mastered
Friends they have captured,
No wonder one is known when he passes.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of Deshler High School, of the year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-two, feeling that the time of our departure from this life in D. H. S. has arrived, and being of sound mind and memory and of charitable disposition, feel that the time is now at hand to make our last will and testament, ere the fortieth and last class graduating from this school building shall have drawn its last feeble breath.

Therefore: We publish and declare this to be our last will and testament:

Article No. 1. We appoint Leo Waltrimire to be the executor of this will and testament.

Article No. 2 To the members of the Board of Education, we bequeath our sincere thanks for their kind efforts in giving us the honor of being the last class to graduate from the old building.

Article No. 3. To the Faculty, we bequeath the pleasure of picking up all the paper that future Senior Classes may throw on the floor.

Article No. 4. To the Junior Class we bequeath the right to endure in silence, any scoldings Mr. Reinbolt feels necessary to bestow upon them.

Article No. 5. To the Sophomore Class, we bequeath our quiet dignity and earnest studiousness, which they may find useful in their coming school days.

Article No. 6 To the Freshmen Class, we bequeath all empty ink bottles or other playthings that we might leave in our deserted desks.

Article No. 7. Edward Kern and Opal Powell bequeath to Burdette Baldwin and Edna Dunzer their positions as editors of the High School Annual.

Article No. 8. Max Lee bequeaths to Morrison Donald, his usefulness in giving information in class.

Article No. 9. Mary Freeman and Delbert Adams bequeath their stature to Troas Fought and Bob Lose.

Article No. 10. Berthe! Flick bequeaths her vivacity to Ruth Conkey, and Mildred Egbert her quiet dignity to Eva Oberlitner.

Article No. 11. Serge Harris bequeaths his powder puff and eyebrow pencil to Bill Noblet.

Article No. 12. In testimony thereof, we hereby subscribe our names and affix the Seal of the Class of 1922, and acknowledge this to be our last will and testament.

For Senior Lovers and Others

Dear Mrs. Howard: I am just starting out in ladies' company and I find myself in peculiar circumstances. I have been keeping company with a girl so large that we both cannot sit in the buggy seat. Please advise me what to do.—H. W. V.

Dear Homer: Am very glad to advise you and the only remedy I can suggest is to get a Ford with a trailer.

Dear Mrs. Howard: I have made several boy acquaintances through corresponding. One of them writes very loving letters and I have come to the point where I believe I love him. However, I am not quite sure if I know him well enough—never having seen him. Will you please advise me if I should marry him or not?—A. C.

Dear Audrey: I believe if I were you I would wait until I got a look at him. Some men's faces are enough to kill any woman's love.

Dear Mrs. Howard: I am only nineteen years old and just starting out in boy's company. The fellows have never tried to kiss me yet, but if they should, would it be proper to allow it?—M. O.

Dear Mable: Better not worry until the time comes. See whether you like it the first time, and judge from that as to whether you consider it proper or not.

Dear Mrs. Howard: I would like to get a girl but every time I ask a girl for a date she laughs at me. What do you think is the matter—D. C. A.

Dear Delbert: Perhaps they see a joke. Are you always sure you haven't got a smudge on your face?

Dear Mrs. Howard: What is your opinion of a fellow that will ask his girl to help push his machine out of the mud when he gets stuck?—M. D. F.

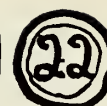

Dear Myrtle: I think he must be an extremely modern young man who believes in the equality of women with men.

Dear Mrs. Howard: I am a Senior in high school and am something of a heart smasher. At least, it seems that way, for the girls hang around me in flocks. What do you suppose they want?—S. H.

Dear Serge: There are many things that might attract the girls. Perhaps they want to borrow your powder puff and rouge. Probably they think you are a good cosmetic provider.

The Annals of the Class of Twenty-three

Once upon a time, as it happened, and has happened for a long time, it came about that in the year A. D. 1919, there assembled in the High School of the Village of Deshler, State of Ohio, a group of green, awkward Freshmen. Now these same freshmen were not so much different from other Freshmen, only more so, so there really was some hope for them. There were twenty-eight of them, but to their patient teachers they often seemed many more. Four were unable to stand the pace and dropped by the way. Paul Biker was our first class president and saw to it that the class had many "hot times."

In the fall of 1920, this class returned as Sophomores, to rule the Assembly room and look down on those other poor beings commonly known as Freshies. Two extra members had been picked up somewhere along the way, and the strength of the class was twenty-six, but three more were bumped off, and the year ended with a net loss of one. Dick Shaffstall was the president this year and some mighty good times were had by all.

As Juniors, Dame Fortune has smiled upon us. Five new Juniors have joined our ranks, making our number again twenty-eight. Three years and no loss in membership! Our first president this year was Margaret Norris, but she resigned in March and Burdette Baldwin was elected to fill the vacancy. The Junior-Senior Banquet this year was a howling success (everybody howled). Altogether, it has been a successful year, and all look forward with confidence to the year to come.

Who is it works—the teachers?

The Juniors;

Who is it feeds the Seniors?

The Juniors;

Who is it always has the pep,

Who helps the old School keep its rep?

Who could it be,

But Juniors?

The Sophomores

The Sophomores are very bright
And love to show their colors;
The Sophomore boys are boys of might,
The girls vamp them, and others.

Their president is Art McNickle,
Who likes the girls, e'en tho they're fickle;
Their secretary, they call "Jerry,"
And many a heart has she made merry.

Troas Fought is a large little girl
With red, red hair that is bound to curl;
Gracie Flowers is tiny of stature,
But no boy yet has been able to catch her.

Now Edna Crawford is slim and tall,
And 'twixt Bob and Ted can't choose at all;
While Ruth Conkey, little Golden Locks,
Giggles and gabbles, and talks, talks, talks.

Robert Ziegler, whom we all call "Red,"
Was once loved by Anna, but their love is now dead;
While Laura Kline and Ruth Lazenby go,
With a McComb and a Belmore beau.

John Flick is his mama's boy,
And forever is playing with many a toy;
Another boy, whose name is Stout,
Is very seldom heard to shout.

Brooks Hoskinson is mostly feet,
But just the same he's very sweet;
Just ask his girl and then you'll know
For she'll not fail to say it's so.

Evelyn Todd likes many dates,
Although she's not near so good at debates,
Garnet Dowling is a clever lassy,
But nevertheless, she is very sassy.

Dudley Rentschler moved away
But we all hope he'll come back some day;
And Betty House, of beauty rare,
Has at last succeeded in bobbing her hair.

Paul Samsel, to school, is never late,
And is a boy of heavy weight;
While Lawrence Bennett, so they claim,
Is fast upon the road to fame.

Clarice Parsons is very handy,
At posing and telling Burdette he's a dandy;
Vincent King, a Sophomore classman,
Considers in debates, even the Freshmen.

Pearl Van Horn would love to emerge
A'l fussed up with a certain Serge;
Raymond Gerdeman, who is very slick,
Is also just as straight as a stick.

Now this is all of the Sophomores here,
But they'll be Juniors by next year;
Just wait till they're Seniors, then they'll do,
Much more than has been told to you.

—M. L.

Innocents Abroad, or Freshmen in Wonderland

SOME time ago, my friend and I decided to take a trip to some foreign country. After some discussion, we decided to travel through France and Germany. When our preparations were Dunn, we sent our trunks by the Adams Express Company, and started. We took a direct route to Paris. We went to a hotel on La Rue de la Pompe, and ordered lunch. The Stewart hung up my friend's hat, but the Nob-let it fall, and then while putting a Dish-on(g) the table, the waiter accidentally knocked off a bottle of Schneider's catsup.

After remaining in Paris a short time, we received an invitation to a theatre party. It was a Moot(z) question what kind of Flowers would look well on my Gray dress, which I intended to wear. I finally decided to wear pink roses.

I had a friend living near Paris, and visited with her for several weeks. Their Butler wore a long, black cloak and carried a Cain which he was always afraid he would Lose.

After leaving Paris we journeyed on toward Germany, travelling by auto. We passed a large Van, Zandt, being ing the name on it. We thought the driver was Edward's son, but he proved to be Donaldson. We stopped for a while at an old mill, and chatted with the Miller. A Heuer, near by, showed us what a Clymer he was by quickly going up a tree in less than a minute. My friend exclaimed, "Look, his Harris all coming off!" Near by, a little Reyn, old(s) as the hills, by its appearance, sang sweetly, as it watched us and guarded its nest.

Journeying on, we at last arrived at Baden-Baden, Germany. We spent several days near here, exploring the country, and having several adventures. Once, while walking around B-lake (they letter them there) we got into a Blanke-meyer, and almost failed to get out. Another time while crossing the lake in a boat, which was too heavily loaded, we almost drowned. The crowd moved suddenly, and some one called out, "The boat will tip Ober-litner at once." Everything possible was thrown overboard, but the boat persisted in taking a Ziegle(r)-zaggle course across the lake. We were relieved when we finally reached the landing.

Our trip, according to our plans, being completed, we Diem-ed it time to start for home. Through the Leadership of my friend, I reached home safe, with many souvenirs of this pleasant journey.

Our Coach

Deshler High School was very fortunate in having for its first football coach Mr. F. W. Reinbolt. The work of a coach in developing an efficient scoring machine from green material is an especially difficult one, but Mr. Reinbolt succeeded to a remarkable degree. He had learned his football in two of the best football schools of Northern Ohio, Fostoria High and Heidelberg University, and handled the boys in fine shape. Mr. Reinbolt was captain of the 1917 H. U. team which lost but one game, to Marietta College, and which tied for Ohio Conference honors.

Mr. Reinbolt was firm in his dealings with the boys, and though tactful, permitted no loafing or poor spirit.

As a basketball coach, he was also successful. Although not a regular basketball player himself, he was able to develop a team which won a majority of its games.

As faculty manager, he handled the teams and finances in an admirable manner. Though much new equipment was purchased, everything was so managed as to show a handsome balance with which to begin the new year.

The High School Athletic Association

The D. H. S. Athletic Association was put on a new basis this year. The dues were raised to fifty cents and membership tickets were given to all members. These tickets permitted the holders to attend all games at a reduced price of admission. The Association also decided upon sizes and styles of letters to be awarded to football and basket ball players who had played in a required number of games.

The officers for 1921-1922 were, Richard Shaffstall, Pres., Naomi Shane, Sec., and Mr. F. W. Reinbolt, Faculty Manager.

The following is a summarized statement of the finances of the D. H. S. A. A.:

Review Of Football Season

DESHLER AT LEIPSIC, OCT. 7

Deshler journeyed to Leipsic to play the first football game ever played between the two schools. For two inexperienced teams, both did well, being evenly matched in straight football.

Leipsic scored the only touchdown of the game, when they got away with a fluke forward pass.

DESHLER AT NORTH BALTIMORE, OCT. 14

A large crowd went with the boys to North Baltimore to see the enemy taken into camp, but returned home disappointed. North Baltimore's heavy, experienced team was too much for our boys, winning by a score of 39 to 0.

DESHLER AT LIBERTY CENTER, OCT. 21

The third game was played with Liberty Center's wonderful team. As was expected, the boys were defeated badly, but really gained much valuable experience. The team played hard all the way and showed promise for the future.

NORTH BALTIMORE AT DESHLER, OCT. 28

The first home game of the season was played against North Baltimore. The visitors remembering their victory of two weeks before, expected to repeat easily, but were rudely jolted by being held to half their previous score, while Deshler was able to score once.

LEIPSIC AT DESHLER, NOV. 4

The big game of the season was the return game with Leipsic. Deshler's goal was never seriously threatened, while big gains were made thru Leipsic's line and by the air route. "Greek" scored the only touchdown of the game by straight line bucks. "Verily, vengeance is sweet."

MCCOMB AT DESHLER, NOV. 14

This game, postponed from Armistice Day because of bad weather, was fought out in a field which resembled a lake. There was much fumbling and McComb's heavy, experienced team was able to roll up a score of 38 to 0.

HOLGATE AT DESHLER, NOV. 21

This was the surprise game of the season. Holgate came to Deshler with a long record of victories over experienced teams and expected to carry home another scalp. As the home boys met for final instructions Coach Reinbolt said, "This is our last game at home, fellows. Lets see you fight." And fight they did, throwing Holgate's players for loss after loss, tearing thru their line or around the ends for fine gains. Holgate scored a touchback, while Ted Kern and Max Lee each scored a touchdown for Deshler. Ted kicked goal once.

DESHLER AT HOLGATE, NOV. 25

This was another dismal day. Holgate was out for revenge and was not particular how they got it. The long ride, small fie'd and unfair officiating combined to win for Holgate team.

While our record shows that only two games were won out of eight played, one can not call it an unsuccessful season. Beginning with an absolutely green team, never having enough at practice for two teams for scrimmage, the general results were very satisfactory and all look forward to next fall with confidence.

Record of 1921-1922 Boys Basket Ball Season

Dec. 9—North Baltimore at Deshler—17-16

Deshler opened the season by playing North Baltimore on the home floor, but the boys failed to put the winning ball through the loop.

Dec. 15—Deshler at Leipsic—14-12

In one of the fastest games of the season, D. H. S. defeated Leipsic High on their own floor. This was Leipsic's first defeat by Deshler on their home floor.

Dec. 23—D. H. S. vs. Alumni—26-21

The looked-forward-to game of the season was played when the Now-Ises met the Has-Beens in battle. Just before Christmas. The Alumni team was composed mostly of college stars, but even at that they could not match up with our dashing players.

Jan. 6—Bloomdale at Deshler—33-22

Bloomdale was the victim of Deshler's third straight victory, Deshler winning easily, although Bloomdale had previously beaten North Baltimore.

Jan. 14—Deshler at Ottawa—16-37

There was but little satisfaction to be gathered from the trip to Ottawa. They treated us terribly, seeming to grudge allowing us the satisfaction of any score at all. The floor was large and slippery, and the boys had much trouble standing up.

Jan. 20—Holgate at Deshler—16-36

Holgate came to Deshler to give battle. Deshler remembered that Thanksgiving football game and showed no mercy.

Jan. 27—Deshler at North Baltimore—24-27

Deshler played the return game at North Baltimore, in their little hand box of a hall, and lost again to them.

Feb. 4—J. O. U. A. M. School of Tiffin at Deshler—18-25

The spectacular game of the season was played on the home floor with the boys from the J. O. U. A. M. home as opponents.

The Tiffin boys put up a stiff scrap, but were unable to score often enough to win.

Feb. 10—Ottawa at Deshler—17-14

"Do good to them who use you roughly." Deshler remembered this when Ottawa invaded the home floor to repeat the former easy victory, and did them good. It was a very hard game.

Feb. 15—Deshler at Bloomdale—15-12

Deshler played the return game with Bloomdale on short notice, the arrangements being made after school closed. The boys and girls were so chilled by the long ride that they were unable to do justice to themselves.

Feb. 17—Weston at Deshler—20-36

Weston was easily defeated on the home floor in an uninteresting game.

Mch. 1, 3, 4—Holgate, Weston and Leipsic vs. Deshler

During the week of March First, Deshler played three games, winning an easy game from Holgate, 33-21, and losing to Leipsic by the close score of 22-24. The Second team played the return game at Weston and lost 11-9.

The Tournaments

Deshler took part in two tournaments, at Heidelberg and at Defiance. In the Heidelberg tournament, Deshler drew the Scott Reserves, who eventually won the cup. The consolation game was also lost.

In the Defiance tournament, Deshler lost the first game to Grand Rapids, 25-14, thus being eliminated. In the consolation series, Florida was beaten 28-7. Deshler then met the old rivals, Ottawa, and was defeated, 17-16, although there seems to have been a mistake in the score, which should have gone overtime.

No report of the Girls' Basket Ball Season would be complete without a word concerning the coach, Miss James. Miss James come to us for the first time this last fall, and has made a place in the regard of all the pupils and teachers. Her work as coach has been very satisfactory. She produced a team which won a majority of its games and really was outclassed by but one. She was firm in her dealings with the players and was able to get the best from them. All hope she will return next year.

The Football Banquet

On the evening of Dec. 23, following the Hi-Alumni basketball game, the football team met to banquet and receive the letters awarded to them. A most delicious and bountiful feed was served. The menu included roast chicken, mashed potatoes, dressing, gravy, and all the trimmings usually associated with such an event. The event was interrupted when some rude boy blew out the fuses and plunged the dining room into darkness. Several of the boys were noticeably less hungry when light was again restored.

After the feed, the boys were called up in turn and presented with letters and numerals by the toastmaster, Principal C. D. La Rue, all responding with well-chosen words, that is they were too full for many words of any kind.

The banquet was prepared under the supervision of Miss James, and served by the girls of the Junior Class.

Girls Basketball Team Banquet

Not to be outdone by the boys, the girls also banqueted following the close of the basket ball season. The feed was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas and was prepared by the hostess and Miss James. Several of the Junior girls again served. (Really, it would be difficult to eat without those girls helping out). This having been prepared mostly for girls it would be difficult for one to name the dishes, but they were good, and the banquet was enjoyed by girls and guests.

Following the banquet, the group was photographed, after which games were played. Mr. La Rue and Mr. Reinbolt were the guests of the evening.

The Varsity "D" Association

The Varsity "D" Association was formed on the evening of Feb. 14, and includes in its membership all men who have won their "D" for good service in Athletics.

Each sport has a different shaped letter. Football men wear a block "D" while basketball veterans have one of Old English.

Those wearing the Football "D" are, Edward Kern, Howard Edwards, Robert Jameson, Leo Walmire, Brooks

Hoskinson, Burdette Baldwin, Max Lee, Dudley Rentschler, Arthur McNickle, Ellis Shirey, Lewis Stout, Edward Borden, Robert Lose and Fred Sherman.

Wearers of the Basketball "D" are Leo Walmire, Arthur McNickle, Serge Harris, Ralph Dunn, Fred Sherman and Ray Gerdeman.

Richard Shaffstall was awarded the Managerial "D".

Officers for 1922-1923 are Richard Shaffstall, Pres., Leo Walmire, Vice Pres., and Fred Sherman, Sec.-Treas.

Ted K.—“It is better to have loved and lost—”
Brooks H.—“Oh, yes, than wed, and be forever tossed ’

Alvin W.—“Sir, since I met your daughter, life’s been like a dream to me.”

Mr. VanZandt—“Yes; and marriage will be the alarm clock that will wake you up.”

SERIOUS COUPLES

Mae’s on the highroad,
Mae’s on the byroad,
Mae’s in the meadow, and
Mae’s in the mart;
And down every byway
Where I’ve taken my way,
I’ve met Mae a-smiling—for Mae’s in my heart.

—Ellis Shirey.

Watson Snyder (saying his prayers sleepily)—“Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep.”

Mother (prompting)—“If—”

Watson (almost asleep)—“If he hollers let him go eeny, meeny, miny, mo.”

Mr. Fairchild (while illustrating electrical charges in Physic). Upon rubbing a comb, belonging to John, in his hair he asked: “What effect will this charged comb have upon these pencils.

John D.—“That comb is not charged. I paid for it”

Gayel C.—“It’s so long (?) since you called, that I was beginning to think you were forgetting me.”

Ivan F.—“I am for getting you, that’s why I came tonight. May I have you?”

Bob. Z.—“What’s wrong? You look worried.”

Arthur McN.—“I am. I wrote two notes—one to Mr. LaRue, asking him if he took me for a fool, and the other to G. Dowling asking her to marry me. While I was out, somebody answered ‘yes’, and I don’t know which one it was!”

Jokes

Vincent M.—“Sweetheart, do I have to wash my face every time I come to see you?”

Edna D.—“Certainly, my dear. How ridiculous.”

Vincent—“Aw, why can't I just powder it like you do?”

Ivan F.—“When is your sister thinking of getting married?”

Ruth C.—“Constantly.”

A Good Turn.

“The inner side of every cloud
Is bright and shining.
And so I turn my clouds about
And always wear them inside out
To show the lining.”

Mr. Myrice—“What animal comes next in intelligence to man?”

Charles Z.—“Woman.”

Don Knoke—“Dearest, I love you. Since the beginning of time, since the dawn of creation, since the birth of this world, I have known and loved you. Darling, will you be mine?”

Ruth C.—“Oh dear, this is so sudden!”

Learn from the clock; it passes the time by keeping it's hands busy.

Mr. Reinbolt—“What insect requires the least nourishment?”

Ralph D.—“The moth. It eats holes.”

“My dear,” impatiently asked Prof. Fairchild next morning, “where in the world is my hat? I can't keep a thing about this house. It's a shame the way things disappear without any apparent reason. I would like to know where that hat is.”

“So would I,” replied his wife sweetly. “You didn't have it on when you came home last night.”

Naomi S.—“I read in the paper that the way to reduce is to fall in love.”

Jay Boyer—“I guess that's why I'm so thin.”

To Make Home Brew

Chase a wild bullfrog three miles and gather up the hops. To the hops add the following: ten gallons tanbark, one-half pint of shellac, one bar home-made soap. Boil the mixture thirty-six hours, then strain through an I. W. W. sock to keep it from working, then bottle and add one grasshopper to each pint to give it the kick.

The Indoor Circus

On the evenings of March 24 and 25, the High School Building was the center of activity in Deshler, when the Orange and Black staff, assisted by the Faculty and student body, staged a three-ringed circus with side shows and everything.

In the Assembly Room, two farce-comedies, "Foiled, By Heck," and "The Deshler Scandalizer," were staged and presented to a large and appreciative audience. Other attractions were, a five-reel movie, a museum, a fish pond, a radio station, fortune tellers and a free lunch.

About one-hundred and twenty dollars was cleared, making it the most successful show ever staged in Deshler.
